Photo/Video Permission:

Interesting and fun school activities often make great stories for community members to read about. We sometimes take photos and/or video, or allow local media to do so, that may include images of our participants. These images will not identify participants. They may be used in school publications, local media and/or websites. We need your permission to use your child's image in this way. If you do not give your permission, or if you do not return this form, we will refrain from using your child in publicity. Either way, thank you for your consideration!
